1. (1) These rules may be called the Bombay Civil Services Classification and Recruitment Rules, 1939.

(2) They shall come into force with effect from the 1st September 1939.

2. These rules apply to Provincial and Subordinate Services under the administrative control of the Government of Bombay. They do not apply to the staff attached to the High Court at Bombay and the subordinate ranks of the police forces for whom separate provisions have been made under other sections of the Act.

Note.—The Governor in his discretion has directed that these rules shall apply to the staff of the Bombay-Sind Public Service Commission. These rules, therefore, apply to that staff.

3. In these rules, unless there is anything repugnant in the subject or context, the following expressions have the following meanings :—

(a) “ Act ” means the Government of India Act, 1935.

(d) “ Native of the Province of Bombay ” means a person who at the date of his appointment has a domicile in the Province of Bombay, or in an Indian State lying within the geographical limits of the Province of Bombay and specified in the Notification of the Government of Bombay, Political and Services Department, No. 1586/34-II† dated the 1st October 1938, and who is either a British subject or, being a non-British subject, is a person eligible to hold any civil office in connection with the affairs of the Province of Bombay by virtue of a declaration issued under sub-section (2) of Section 262 of the Act.

4. (1) In making appointments to Provincial or Subordinate Services, preference shall be given to the natives of the Province of Bombay. Provided that this rule may be relaxed in respect of the domicile of any person whenever it appears to Government that for any particular post or class of posts such limitation of the field of recruitment is not desirable in the interests of the public service.

Provided further that nothing in this rule shall affect the temporary employment of any person under the power conferred by the proviso to sub-section (4) of Section 262 of the Act.

(2) Children of persons employed in any Railway owned or operated by the Central Government or in any Department of the Central Government who are liable to inter-provincial transfer are eligible for appointment provided they have resided in the Province of Bombay or in an Indian State lying within the geographical limits of the Province of Bombay and specified in the Government Notification referred to in clause (d) of rule 3 for a continuous period of three years immediately preceding the date of appointment and are either British subjects or, being non-British subjects, are eligible to hold a civil office in connection with the affairs of the Province of Bombay by virtue of a declaration issued under sub-section (2) of section 262 of the Act.

7. Government shall prescribe the qualifications in respect of age and education which shall be required to be possessed by candidates for admission to the Provincial and Subordinate services. The qualifications so far prescribed are stated in Appendices C and D.

Note 1.—The age limits prescribed in accordance with the provisions of this rule may be relaxed by the appointing authorities in the case of candidates for admission to Government service from the educationally intermediate and backward classes including the Muhammadans provided their ages do not exceed the prescribed ages by more than three years, and provided further that for special reasons to be recorded in writing in each case, Government may appoint candidates whose ages exceed the prescribed ages irrespective of the classes to which they belong or the number of years by which their ages exceed the prescribed ages.

Note 2.—The rule about the age limit should be strictly observed at the time when persons are admitted into Government service and persons who are above the age limit should not be appointed even to temporary vacancies. If a suitable candidate satisfying these rules is not available for a particular post and it is considered necessary to appoint one who does not satisfy the requirements of the rules, the fact should be reported to Government for orders before any definite commitment is made by the appointing authority. Officers in the Public Works Department may however make appointments without the previous approval of Government to temporary and work-charged establishments in that Department of persons who are overage but are required to be engaged on account of their special technical qualifications. Such appointments of overage persons should, however, be restricted as far as possible.

Note 3.—The prescribed age limit should be reckoned with reference to the date of commencement of continuous service, whether officiating, temporary or work-charged, and not with reference to the date of subsequent substantive appointment in the case of candidates promoted to permanent establishment after continuous officiating, temporary or work-charged service.

Note 4.—In cases where no special qualifications in respect of education are prescribed it is left to the discretion of Heads of Departments to recruit such persons as appear to them to be suitable for the duties they are to be required to perform.

8. Except in the case of services and posts excluded from the field of functions of the Commission by Regulations made under sub-section (3) of Section 266 of the Act, appointments to Provincial services and posts shall be made by Government or by an authority empowered by Government in this behalf, after consultation with the Commission either on the result of a competitive examination or by nomination or by promotion from the Subordinate services, from among candidates satisfying the conditions laid down in these rules: Provided that when an appointment to a post or service is to be made from candidates selected in England and applications for the same have not also been invited in the Province of Bombay the appointment shall be made after consideration of the recommendations made by the High Commissioner for India acting on the advice of such Advisory Committee, if any, as Government may, from time to time, appoint.
